BMW C 400 X.

MAKE LIFE A RIDE.

OVERVIEW.

Make the most of the city. With the BMW C 400 X mid-size scooter, every rush hour becomes a memorable experience. You can always rely on the optional BMW Motorrad connectivity package for telephone calls, music and navigation. It lets you be reachable on the road, and helps you easily avoid traffic to arrive safely at your destination. Narrow streets and heavy traffic – the BMW C 400 X overcomes the challenges presented by big cities with agility and flexibility and allows you to experience how uncomplicated and stress-free urban mobility can be. At every stop, the helmet can be quickly and easily stowed in the flexcase system, leaving you free to enjoy all the city has to offer.

RIDER EQUIPMENT.

1 Tokyo jacket
A dirt- and water-resistant outer, as well as the AirVent system integrated into the front, makes the Tokyo jacket ideal for the daily commute – even in summer. It also comes with NPL protectors at the shoulders and elbows.

2 CityDenim trousers
A relaxed fit, NPL protectors (removable from the outside) and a robust blend of cotton and Cordura mean you can transform these casual motorcycling trousers into stylish leisurewear in a matter of seconds.

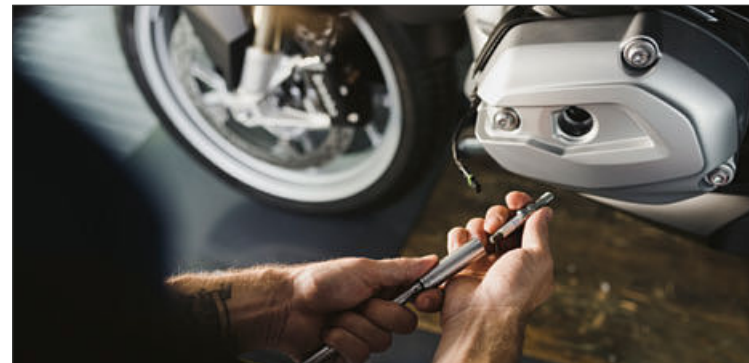

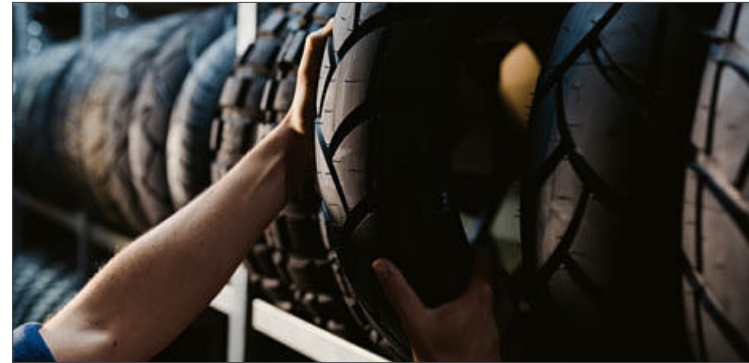

3 DownTown gloves
Want to use your phone without taking your gloves off? Then try these thin gloves made from soft goatskin leather and lightweight fabric. Thanks to GORE-TEX® WINDSTOPPER technology, the material is 100% windproof and breathable.

4 RIDE SNEAKERS
Sometimes even motorcycle riders want to wander through the urban landscape on foot – preferably in lightweight sneakers made of high-quality cowhide leather that look as cool with jeans as they do with motorcycling gear. Reinforce ments, protectors and extra padding in the gear-shift area offer all the safety you need on the bike.
